Documentation prepared in compliance with the provisions from the GDPR 2016/679 "General Data Protection Regulation" and to Legislative Decree 196/2003 "code on data protection"

Dear
Company
Address

Subject: Information pursuant to and for the effects of the GDPR EU 2016/679 concerning the protection of personal data processing

In your role as "Owner" and "Interested Party", namely the subject to which the data processing refers to and/or are responsibly managed by you, we wish to update you regarding the essential features of the processing carried out.

Aim of the processing.

The collection and processing of personal data is carried out in order to conduct:

1. the fulfillment of all transactions imposed by regulatory obligations;
2. transactions strictly connected and instrumental to the start of contractual relationships, including the acquisition of preliminary information to the conclusion of the Contract;
3. management of relations with the Supplier for administration, accounting, orders, shipping, invoicing, services and resolution of any dispute;
4. any assessment of the supplier based on ISO 9001: 2015, D.Lgs 196/03 and GDPR UE 2016/679 specifications; and will be subject to treatment based on the principles of correctness, lawfulness, transparency and protection of your privacy and rights. The contractual purposes, provision of services, commercial and non-commercial aims relate solely to the processing of the Supplier's personal data. The Supplier's personal data shall be processed for the full duration of the contractual relationships set, as well as subsequently to fulfil all legal requirements, as well as for the future commercial purposes.

Anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism.

The provision of data required by the legislation on Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism is mandatory and any failure to respond precludes the requested professional service and may involve reporting the transaction to the competent supervisory body. In this regard, it should be noted that the processing of personal data related to anti-money laundering obligations will be implemented with regard to the specific implementation procedures imposed on non-financial operators by the Regulation on the identification and retention of information envisaged by article 3 paragraph 2 of Legislative Decree no. 56/2004 and implemented with Ministerial Decree no. 143/2006. Other information could also be taken from public sources to comply with the obligations under Legislative Decree 231/2007.

Processing method.

The processing of data for the purposes outlined is carried out using either automated, electronic or magnetic, or non-automated means, on paper, in compliance with the legal regulations governing confidentiality and security, and the resulting regulations and internal provisions.

Data processing site.

The data is currently processed and archived at the offices in VIA MARCELLO 24 ,35011 CAMPODARSEGO (PD) - ITALY. Furthermore, they are also processed, on behalf of the undersigned, by professionals and/or companies tasked with carrying out technical, development, management and administrative - accounting processes.

Compulsory or optional provision of data.

Some data are indispensable for the establishment of the contractual relationship or for its execution, while others can be defined as accessories to said purposes. The provision of data to the writer is mandatory only for data for which there is a legal or contractual obligation.

Consequences of a refusal to provide data.

In cases where the provision of data is required by a regulatory or contractual obligation, any refusal would put the Supplier in the conditions of not being able to carry out or execute the Contract further as it would constitute an unlawful processing. In cases where there is no legal obligation to provide data, the refusal would not have the consequences mentioned above but would still prevent the execution of ancillary operations.

Disclosure of data.

Without prejudice to communications and disclosures carried out in order to meet legal obligations, your Personal Data may be communicated in Italy and/or abroad to:

- Professionals and consultants, consultancy companies, factoring companies, credit institutes, debt collection companies, credit insurance companies, commercial information companies, companies operating in the transport sector;
- Public and private bodies, also following inspections or audits such as: Financial Administration, Tax Inspection Bodies, Judicial Authorities, Italian Exchange Offices, Labour Inspectorate, Local Health Authorities, Departments of Social security, ENASARCO, Chamber of Commerce, etc.;
- Subjects who can legally access your data;
